The name of applicant was surfaced in the confessional statement when the applicant and other accused persons were arrested in another crime. It is submitted that there is no other evidence linking the applicant with alleged crime. It is submitted that co-accused Saleem and Naeem and Faheem, have already been granted bail by this Court by orders dated 6.8.2024 and 13.08.2024, passed in Criminal Misc. Bail Application Nos.7700 of 2024 and 29927 of 2024. The criminal history of applicant has been explained in paragraph no.

21 of the affidavit filed in support of the bail application. have been explained in paragraph nos. 12 and 13 of the affidavit. Applicant is languishing in jail since 01.08.2024 and in case they are released on bail, they will not misuse the liberty of bail and will cooperate in the trial.

3. Learned A.G.A. for the State opposed the prayer for bail but does not dispute factual matrix of the case.

4. No material or circumstance has been brought to the notice of this Court with regard to tampering of evidence or intimidating of witness in previous criminal cases. In Ash Mohammad Vs. Shiv Raj Singh, (2012) 9 SCC 446, the Apex Court in para 30 has observed:-

"We may hasten to add that when we state that the accused is a history-sheeter we may not be understood to have said that a history-sheeter is never entitled to bail. But, it is a significant factor to be taken note of regard being had to the nature of crime in respect of which he has been booked."

5. In the case of Prabhakar Tewari Vs. State of U.P. and another, 2020 (11) SCC 648, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has observed that pendency of several criminal cases against an accused may itself cannot be a basis for refusal of bail.

6. In so far as criminal antecedents of the applicant is concerned, it is not the case of the State that applicant may tamper with or otherwise adversely influence the investigation, or that he may intimidate witnesses before or during the trial. The State has also not placed any material that applicant in past attempted to evade the process of law. If the accused is otherwise found to be entitled to bail, he cannot be denied bail only on the ground of criminal history, no exceptional circumstances on the basis of criminal antecedents have been shown to deny bail to accused, hence, the Court does not feel it proper to deny bail to the applicant just on the ground that they had criminal antecedent.

7. The principle that Bail is a rule and Jail is an exception has been well recognised by Apex Court more specifically on the touch stone of Article 21 of the Constitution. The said principle has been reiterated by the Apex Court in Satyendra Kumar Antil Vs. Central Bureau of Investigation and another, 2022 (10) SCC 51. Learned AGA has not shown any exceptional circumstances which would warrant denial of bail to the applicants.

8. No material, facts or circumstances has been shown by learned AGA for the State that the accused may tamper with the evidence or witnesses or the accused is of such character that their mere presence at large would intimidate the witnesses or that accused will use their liberty to subvert justice or tamper with the evidence.

9. It is settled principle of law that the object of bail is to secure the attendance of the accused at the trial. No material particulars or circumstances suggestive of the applicant fleeing from justice or thwarting the course of justice or creating other troubles in the shape of repeating offences or intimidating witnesses and the like have been shown by learned AGA for the State.

10. Learned AGA for the State has not shown any material or circumstances that the accused/applicant is not entitled to bail in larger interests of the public or State.

11. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, nature of offence, evidence, complicity of the accused, submissions of learned counsel for the parties and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, the Court is of the view that the applicant has made out a case for bail. The bail application is allowed.

12. Let the applicant Furkan involved in Case Crime No. 192 of 2024, under Sections 3/5/8 of U.P.
